St. James's, September 24.

THE following Addreſs of the Britiſh Merchants and Traders in the City and Government of Quebec, having been tranſmitted by General Murray to the Earl of Halifax, one of His Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State, to be laid before the King, has, by his Lordſhip, been preſented to His Majeſty: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Britiſh Merchants and Traders in the City and Government of Quebec.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Britiſh Merchants and Traders in the City and Government of Quebec, with Hearts full of Joy and Gratitude, do moſt ſincerely congratulate your Majeſty, on the late glorious and honourable Peace; which hath put a Stop to the Effuſion of human Blood, added a great Extent of Territory to your Majeſty's Dominions, and reſtored Tranquility not only to your Majeſty's natural Subjects, but alſo to the World in general.

Of the great Acquiſitions which this happy Event hath annexed to your Majeſty's Crown and Kingdoms, this Country is not the leaſt important; which though valuable in itſelf, is far more ſo, from the Security it affords your Majeſty's Subjects in the other Provinces in North America; whoſe Lives and Properties will no longer be endangered from the ambitious Views and inſidious Deſigns of their Neighbours the Inhabitants of this Country, whilſt under the Dominion of France.

On this Occaſion it were ungrateful in us, not to acknowledge the Advantages we enjoy under General Murray's prudent and mild Adminiſtration, which hath been ſuch that we have hitherto ſcarcely felt the Want of a Civil Inſtitution.

And we beg Leave humbly to aſſure your Majeſty, that we ſhall ſtudiouſly endeavour to cultivate a good Underſtanding, with your Majeſty's new acquired Subjects; and to make them ſenſible of the happy Change, which Providence hath brought about in their Favour; and of the Bleſſings ſecured to them by your Majeſty's gracious Protection; a ſignal Inſtance of which they have already experienced, in the ſolemn Declaration obtained by your Majeſty, from the French King, concerning the Paper Money iſſued by his Authority.

Done at Quebec, this firſt Day of Auguſt 1763.

The following Addreſs of the Noblemen, Gentlemen and Freeholders of the County of Roxburgh, has been preſented to His Majeſty: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Noblemen, Gentlemen, and Freeholders of the County of Roxburgh.

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt faithful Subjects, the Noblemen, Gentlemen and Freeholders of the County of Roxburgh, beg Leave to approach your Royal Preſence, to congratulate your Majeſty on the Succeſs of your Endeavours to increaſe the Happineſs of your People, by the Concluſion of a ſafe and honourable Peace, the Benefits of which, the longer they experience, the more they muſt be ſenſible of your Majeſty's Paternal Care and Wiſdom; and they can never ceaſe praying for the Continuance of a Reign, in which they muſt reſt aſſured, that every Circumſtance, which can render the Conditions of the Peace more beneficial to them, will be attended to, and improved, by the Wiſdom of your Majeſty's Councils.

Permit us, Sire, to aſſure your Majeſty, that it is with the utmoſt Concern we have obſerved the late Attempts to alienate the Minds of your Majeſty's Subjects, and to create Jealouſies among a People, ſo happily united under your Majeſty's Government.

It is our ſincere Wiſh, that Providence may long preſerve your Majeſty, to be, what you ſo deſervedly are, the beloved Sovereign of a grateful People, convinced as we are, that it is a greater Pleaſure to ſuch a Mind as your Majeſty is bleſſed with, to ſee your Subjects happy and flouriſhing by the Arts of Peace, than to enjoy all the Glory and Triumph that can attend a ſucceſsful War.

This Addreſs, by Order of the Meeting of Freeholders, is ſubſcribed by Sir William Scott, of Ancrum, Baronet, their Preſes, and in their Name, at Jedburgh, this 2d of Auguſt, 1763.

Wm. Scott.

I. with his Name round it, and Isabella Inglish underneath the Shield in a Scroll. They are of excellent Use in all Cases where Purging is necessary, and may be taken with Epsom, Tunbridge, or other Medicinal Waters.

DR. JAMES's Powder for FEVERS, the Small Pox, Measles, Pleurisies, Quinsies, acute Rheumatisms, Colds, and all inflammatory Disorders, as well as for those which are called Nervous, Hypochondriac, and Hysteric, Price 2 s. 6 d. the Paper; with good Allowance to those who buy it for charitable Uses, or to sell again.

 Experience having taught, that this Medicine, which is a safe and certain Cure for the above Disorders, is better prepared for Sea Service (and more convenient) in Bottles, than made up as usual in Marble Paper, the Commissioners, who have the Direction of the Medicines employed in the Navy, have ordered this Powder to be so preserved for the Use of all His Majesty's Ships of War; and a large Quantity is also made up in the same Manner for Merchants and Captains of Trading Ships, as well as for those who are any way concerned in Voyages, or the Sea Service.

This Medicine is sold only by J. Newbery, at the Bible and Sun in St. Paul's Church Yard, and by those who are empowered by him to sell it in the several Towns of Great Britain, Ireland, and the Colonies.

Of whom may be had.

Dr. James's Mild Powder for the Disorders above-mentioned, which is prepared from the same Materials as the other Powder, but so contrived as to have little or no sensible Operation, and upon that Account is the more proper for Women under certain Circumstances, Infants, and those whose Constitutions are extremely delicate. And it is more than probable that this Powder, by taking off the Acrimony, will prevent Pitting in the Small Pox, Price 2 s. 6 d.
